Obamacare Substitute Deserves Passage

(Alexandria, Virginia) -- The 60 Plus Association, the nation's largest conservative seniors organization and acknowledged alternative to the liberal AARP, today issued a statement from its Chairman, Jim Martin, endorsing legislation offered by the Republican Study Committee under leadership of its Chairman, Congressman Steve Scalise (R-La) and RSC member, Dr. Phil Roe, Republican Congressman from Tennessee:

"With Obamacare failing on virtually all fronts this is a truly well thought out legislative solution in an effort to fix what's broke, preserve what's right and enhance quality, access and affordability for millions of Americans, particularly the elderly. 60 Plus enthusiastically endorses your proposals.

"Reform that puts healthcare decisions back in the hands of patients and their doctors -- NOT government politicians and bureaucrats -- is by far the best way to achieve healthcare security now and for our future."
